The Communist Party of Argentina (CPA) is preparing to intensify a number of its campaigns throughout the country.

1. Courses in doctrinal instruction which were recently inaugurated in Buenos Aires will be adopted and continued for a long period of time by the various provincial committees.
2. The provincial committees have been instructed to intensify the campaign for constitutional reform, particularly among the women voters.
3. In August the Party will launch a new financial campaign. One of its principal purposes will be to counteract the deficit, amounting to 20,000 pesos per month, incurred by the Communist newspaper La Hora. The Party is unable to meet its other current expenses with income received from dues and contributions. General contributions have decreased considerably. Police restrictions on Communist gatherings are said to be partially responsible for the decreased revenue.
